*Donor is deceased
Bookended by dual crises (Hurricane Dorian in September and the onset of COVID-19 in March), fiscal year 2020 (July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020) could have been catastrophic one for Drayton Hall Preservation Trust. Thanks to the generosity of our Friends, donors and volunteers, it was a remarkable one.

Perhaps as iconic as Drayton Hall itself are the historic live oaks that adorn its 350-acre property. Their survival is testament to the power of your philanthropy. In addition to the constant and specialized attention these 300-year-old giants require, your support funded the removal of 30 smaller, more modern trees and other debris laid to waste by Hurricane Dorian.
Along with the nearly 15,000 individuals who visited the site in fiscal year 2020, you helped usher in a new era for the Drayton Hall experience. Your philanthropy expanded the Drayton Hall narrative to recognize contributions by African Americans across the site. You also helped us adapt our tours, contributing to the safety and health of visitors as well as the preservation of the House. Finally, because of you, we were able to create a new way to access Drayton Hall through our virtual education programs.
Reflecting on the extraordinary impact of philanthropy at Drayton Hall in fiscal year 2020, Drayton Hall Preservation Trust Board Chair Bill Bodine said, “Annual Giving and Membership gifts are not only the financial lifeblood of a cultural institution, they are a means by which the staff and the Board of Trustees are able to judge our community impact. Financial support is a major indicator of the place Drayton Hall holds in the hearts and minds of our audiences, and I want to express our gratitude for the generosity of all our donors during this most difficult year.”
